Roma Electronics Forum

The meeting point for the members of the Electronic Community from central and southern Italy

Two days in Rome for companies, engineers, designers, professionals and members of the Electronic Community from central and southern Italy.

Seminars, workshops and technical sessions aimed at Electronic Professionals. An invaluable tool to keep up-to-date with the most advanced markets trends and technologies.

Schedule

15 February

10 am – 1 pm

The two main national Electronics associations: the National Association of Electronic Components, member of ANIE (Italian Federation of Electrotechnical and Electronics Industries) and Assodel (National Association of Electronics Suppliers) will present the 2005 Italian market data. An invited guest speaker will provide a high-profile perspective on the evolution of the Italian marketplace

2,30 pm - 6 pm

Workshop to examine the situation six months before the 1st July 2006 when directive 2002/95/CE better known as RoHS (Restriction on the Use of Certain Hazardous Substances) will become effective. This directive imposes the reduction of use of some dangerous substances for electrical and electronic equipment.

16 February

10 am – 1 pm

Seminar on state-of-the-art technologies for the fast growing market of power components and modules. The seminar provides an invaluable opportunity for engineers, designers and buyers to keep up-to-speed with current trends in the field of power components (especially Mosfet and IGBT) and solutions (power modules).

2,30 pm – 5 p

A full afternoon program, with workshops organized by sponsors, on systems, products and solutions.

Participants will be offered a buffet lunch at 1 p.m. and, at the end of the meeting, documents and acts regarding the event will be distributed.
